Smoking Hot

BY PERRY LEVINSON
PHOTOGRAPHY BY HANNY RODRIGUEZ

Back in the day, they were called cigarette tables. Now that smoking has become the ultimate taboo, we're not sure what to call them. One thing we know: the rules of style, scale, and color don't apply—use them at whim, anywhere.
